Monthly Petroleum Report. Production---Development---Number of New Wells Drilling-Stock of Petroleum in the Region---Shipments--The Price, Exports,

For the Month ending June 30th, 1870.

The month of June was not marked by the striking of as many new and productive wells as the month preceding, yet the proluction was steadily increased during the month, above the decline in many of the old producing districts, and exhibits for ix hundred and fifty barrels per day. While many of the oil tracts throughout upon the eastern of fifty to two hundred barrels per day, while upon others the decrease and increase vere such as to maintain an average production in the aggregate, that does not the decline was most marked, are the Inral smaller tracts in the vicinity of Shamburg, Upper Cherry Run, the former ract showing a falling off of about 200 barrels per day, while the Chicago, and Emery Bros. tracts exhibit a decrease in the average daily production amounting to 143 and 127 barrels respectively. There was also a decline of about 100 barrels in the cicinity of Church Run, near Titusville, while upon the Huidekooper, Bean, Keach, and other farms near Pithole, the aggregate decline amounted to about 200 barrels. The weather during the month was favoruble for operations, and there were few stoppages upon the farms bordering upon or adjacent to Oil Creek. The principal increase during June occurred upon the Dalzell farm, near Petroleum Centre, which shows a gain of 198 barrels daily over the production of May, and upon the ew territory in the vicinity of West Hickory, and in the Parker's Landing and ther districts south of Franklin upon the Allegheny River. The increase in the latter amounting to about 270 barrels and other minor tracts, there was an inrease varying from one hundred to:twenty barrels respectively, the R. L. Shaw farm alone showing a gain of 116 barrels. In the Parker's Landing district, the increase was due mainly to the use of tor pedoes, though several productive wells were struck in various portions of the territory that produced from twenty to fifty barrels daily, and increased the production

Deduct decrease on July 1st...... 29,328

The new wells completed during the month in the vicinity of Parker's Landing have in most instances proved to be of th smaller class, or producing less than 50 bar rels of oil daily. The Banner well upon the Dalzell farm on Oil Creek, maintained a steady production through the entire month of over 300 barrels per day, and is considered the best well in the region though the well completed on the 17th duction. The average gravity of the produc shows no important change during the month under review though there is reason to believe that in some localities m benzine has been used than during the preceding months of the year. The following table shows the or estimated daily product during June, of all tracts, farms and districts in the region and the number of wells drilling on the

..... 550 25 THE DEVELOPMENT AND NEW TERRITORY. The principal developments and operawaters of West Hickory creek and the Allegheny river. Upon the Tuttle & Hoffman farms the eastern boundary of the oil belt, upon which the "Ventural March and "Bird" wells are oil fined to the vicinity of West Hickory, and distinctly defined, and the absence of oil bearing rock shows the eastern limit of of i number of valuable wells having beer completed which are nearly upon line completed which are nearly upon line, extending from the Royal Scott farm erly direction through the west ern part of the Tuttle, the Fagundas, the Snedeker and McCalmont farms. The outhern limit of this belt has not yet een ascertained. The month of July, however, will witness the completion of several wells upon the Snedeker and Mc-Calmont farms, the former already producing two hundred and fifty barrels per day. The numerous developments in this vicinity, and the general activity in progress, suffered a decline the latter part of the month, owing to the completion of the month under review a gain of about several wells upon the Tuttle Farm that proved dry or non-paying. Operations the region exhibit no important change in the yield, several localities show a decline of fifty to two hundred barrels per day, former tract, received a check, and several wells in various stages of completion were abandoned as worthless.

The principal operations at the present differ essentially from former reports.

Among the farms and tracts upon which er, and McCalmont farms, all of which are new territory, the value of the form dependent, Chicago, Emery Bros., and sev- er and latter will be proved during July, several wells upon each being nearly com pleted.

> There is perhaps more "wild catting," or independent operating in untried and apparently valueless territory being conduoted at present than at any time previous since the discovery of oil. In the vicinity of the Allegheny river between Tidioute and Tionesta several "wild ent" or test wells have been finished or are being drilled.

These generally prove worthless, though as in the case of the "Venture" well, an occasional paying and large producing well is discovered, which opens a new and often extensive field for operations.

It is supposed that much valuable territory exists in Forest and Warren counties lying nearly opposite White Oak station, hough as yet no reliable indications have been discovered which would prove that such is the case.

Upon the Chicago and other tracts in the vicinity of Upper Cherry Run nume rous wells are being drilled, as there are daily, and 400 barrels at West Hickoryupon the Huidekooper, Keach, McBride. the Shamburg tract, the Gorou district Pithole. Upon the McCray and Dalzell farms, near Petroleum Centre, several wells are in process of drilling, and upon most of the larger producing tracts bordering upon Oil Creek wells are bein drilled which, if successful, are sufficient to maintain the present production o

Upon the Armstrong farm, and in the cicinity of Brady's Bend upon the Alleas mentioned, above the decline in the gheny River, operations have not increased since the previous report, and, in some in stances, have been suspended, owing to the cost of sinking wells in this locality BELS. and the failure of the "Armstrong well, ' to produce oil in paying quantities.

At Parker's Landing and vicinity, the attention of operators is mostly confined o the wells commenced previous to June, but few new wells being commenced during the month, and the whole number of wells drilling is less than for severa months previous.

business establishments are numerous Hoskins & Weed have two stores for the sale of hardware and well tools, and Wickham & Bro. are engaged in the same business. H. H. Walker and Theo. Sherer carry on a machine and blacksmith shop. The rocery and provision stores are kept by Brinker & Pauley, Giddings & Co., J. B. Hough and S. P. Spangler. The bakery business is carried on by Turner & Mon-roe and by J. B. Hough. The Douglas House, by Douglas & Beecher, is the hotel of the place, and there are restaurants onducted by Peter Heaton, Mrs E J Buckley, A. J. Pierce and J. B. Hough. Wm. Nolan has two livery stables, and also branch stables at Battle City and Hickory. The public hall is owned by Peter Heaton. The tonsorial artist is Edward Morton. Simon Zamoyski and J. Louis sell the dry goods and clothing. The drug trade is represented by Harris Coulter and F. L. Batzhold and shoe dealer. James Potter and James Leary & Co. keep the butcher stalls. Among the contiguous farms mos productive, are the Independent tract, farms. The adjoining farms are the Na tional, Lily, Lyle, McBride, Smith, Phœ from Oleopolis and at points south of Oil nixville and Mill farm, all of which are producing oil in paying quantities. The oil "belt" is conceded to run east and west. Personsville, says our correspondent, is not played out. New wells are constantly being struck, and the fact is pretty well established that the ambitious little city is no "sham" of a place.

(From Toledo Blade of June 9, 1870.)
FINE CUT TOBACCO.—We observe by the sale of tobacco stamps, that the manufacturers of "fine cut" have been doing a very good business during the month of May. The well known house of Chuse, Isherwood & Co., who manufacture the popular brand of fine cut chewing tobacco own as the "Buckeye," have been una ble to manufacture in sufficient quantities to supply all demands upon them; however, they make a very fair showing for the month of May, as will be seen by the following figures:
